The Langley School District Foundation was established to make learning UNFORGETTABLE for every Langley student. Our mandate is to support and provide programs of excellence to Langley students that are not funded or fully-funded by the Ministry of Education. Our goal is to ensure that every Langley student receives the maximum benefit of the education to which they are entitled.

All net proceeds from THE THIRD ANNUAL LANGLEY INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL go to support arts and film programs in Langley schools.

Cadillac Tramps: Life on the Edge

Hard-hitting and uncomfortably raw this documentary explores the ravages and vagaries of the five-member band, Cadillac Tramp, who exploded onto the grunge scene in the early 1990s. But like many of their genre, the members wrestled with infighting and drug and alcohol addiction to the point where the band tragically dissolved at the height of their popularity.

Student-produced films

This is when you realize that to students from Brookwood, RE Mountain, Langley Fine Arts and Langley Secondary acceptable is not good enough. They know that inspiration comes from pushing the envelope of their imaginations – where original ideas and dynamic films come fast and furious. Their films will be adjudicated by the best in the business. Watch for their names and their credits in years to come. The student films will be adjudicated by Gemma Martini (owner of Martini Studios, Jamie Coakley, Cadillac Tramps director and well-known film maker, Adrian West,

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 17 • 3:30 PM

Luk Luk'l

TIFF and VIFF award-winning film. Skype interview with director. Watch as the cream of the crop collide with the salt of the earth in Luk Luki'l. Directed by Wayne Wapeemukwa, a Langley School District Brookwood Secondary graduate, the film is a sharp historical critique of what happens when greed rears its ugly head as it did in Vancouver in 2010.

SATURDAY, MARCH 4 • 7:30 PM

The Shape of Water

Complex, compelling and mildly disturbing, the film, directed by Guillermo del Toro is multi-layered and a wild jostling of genres, set at the peak of the Cold War. The story revolves around the strange relationship that evolves between a mute, lovelorn cleaner at a scientific facility and the scaly creature who has been brought from the Amazon to the lab, where it is hoped he may be of use against the Russians. GOLDEN GLOBE WINNER AND OSCAR NOMINEE.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 18 • 1:00 PM

C'est la Vie! (French: Le Sens de la fête) is a 2017 French comedy film directed by Olivier Nakache & Éric Toledano. Delightful, chaotic, clever and whip smart, the races from catastrophe to catastrophe, as a chi chi French chef tries to cater the wedding of a frightfully dysfunctional family.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 18 • 3:30 PM

Three Billboards Outside Ebbing, Missouri. After months have passed without a culprit in her daughter's murder case, Mildred Hayes makes a bold move, painting three signs leading into her town with a controversial message directed at William Willoughby, the town's revered chief of police.

LIFF MODERATOR

Mark Forsythe: Former CBC talk show host of BC Almanac for more than 30 years. Mark, with his deep and profound appreciation for the heritage and character of BC is currently writing a book to capture the essence and history of our special city, region and province.
